

VOL. 1 ISSUE 4 · DECEMBER 2019 MERRY CHRISTMAS!

RENEW

Official Newsletter of Church of the Master

A Letter from the Pastor

Written by Pastor Jay Anderson

Advent Greetings!

Wow! Have these few months of summer and fall flown by or what?!? As this newsletter comes out to you we are in the season of Advent. So I guess I should be saying to you,

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Happy liturgical new year, that is. Advent is the beginning of the church year - a time of waiting and anticipating the coming of the Christ, who is both coming and already here! No wonder this calendar gets some folks so confused!

We begin the church year with the coming of Christ, and then spend the rest of the year reflecting, remembering, and renewing our lives and our spirits in the knowledge of what all of that means to us. In the church year, Christmas doesn't actually begin until Christmas Day (sundown on Christmas Eve) and then extends for twelve days (thus the song) until Epiphany, on January 6th. Our society pushes Christmas forward, unable to stomach a time of waiting and watching, waiting and watching. Ours is a society where instant gratification isn't quick enough!

I invite you to consider s-l-o-w-i-n-g d-o-w-n this Advent Season, giving Advent (and God) time to work on you, keeping society's Christmas hoopla at bay as long as you can, and just spending some time considering what God might have in store for you, what blessings you might be missing out on, because you're rushing to get to the "big day" (the best prices are closer to Christmas Day anyway! Trust me, I'm a recovering retailer!)

For many years, when I was in retail, Christmas lost all joy for me. In fact, as much as I'm pained to admit it, I hated Christmas. It was a period of several weeks of not seeing my family, working ridiculously long hours without days off, and dealing with customers who were upset that the latest, greatest, toy or tech items were in short supply and assuming it was somehow my fault -that I had somehow conspired with the manufacturer, the transportation companies and everyone else to rob little Johnny or Cindy of a Merry Christmas. Ebenezer Scrooge had NOTHING on me!

The JOY began to return for me when I left retail (not immediately, mind you, I did say I am a RECOVERING retailer) but has taken many years to elevate me beyond "Bah Humbug" status. Getting to be with my family again, being able to be in worship again on Christmas Eve, just having the time to reflect on what this first season of the new year is truly all about has made a huge difference for me. Am I totally there yet? No, but I get closer every year, and I'm looking forward to spending this Advent and Christmas with you.

There are ways for you to connect to the true meaning of the season this year, if you're willing to try. Our Advent Study, "Almost Christmas" is one way. Delivering poinsettias and brightening the season for some of our homebound members who can't get out is another. Our worship series for Advent is called "Heaven and Nature Sing," and is built on the 300th anniversary of the song, "Joy to the World." You could commit to being in worship each week to soak in the reason for the season. I've also extended an invitation to read one chapter of the Gospel of Luke each day in December, which will take you up through Christmas Eve. Our Chancel Choir will present the cantata, "Darkness Into Light" on Sunday, December 22nd. Our Christmas Eve Worship schedule includes a Family Service at 5:00 p.m. featuring our Children's Ministry groups, followed by a potluck meal, and then a Traditional Service at 7:30 p.m. And there is more that be found by checking out the worship folder, our weekly announcements emails, or just by asking.

So may you give yourself the gift of waiting this year. May you give yourself the gift of Joy, Peace, Hope, and Love in all of their wonderful manifestations. And when the right time comes, may you have a wonderful and joy-filled Christmas!

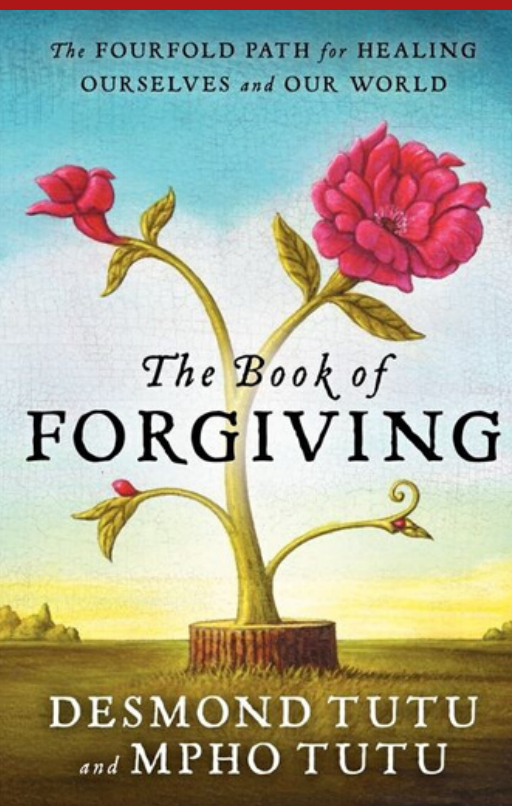

Holiday Blessings,

Pastor Jay

Join us every month in the "Staff's Cozy Corner" as we showcase a staff member as they share their current favorite reading materials. This month, April joins us as she shares about her current book of choice: "The Book of Forgiving" and her progress in reading the entire Bible throughout this year!

Reading has always been a favorite activity for me. It is even more enjoyable since having successful cataract surgery! After a recent major life event, I went in search of a book to help me process through this change. I had a conversation with Pastor Jennifer as I visited with her at Stonybrook UMC and she recommended, "The Book of Forgiving" by Desmond and Mpho Tutu. The stories of how people were able to forgive after experiencing devastating tragedies inspired me to work through the Fourfold Path. I am now on the way to being able to forgive (not forget) as I continue my healing process.

Eleven months ago I also took the "read the Bible in a year" challenge! There is a certain satisfaction in checking off the readings list each day that I complete them. By the time this article is published, I'll be in the final chapters of Ezekiel and starting 1 John. Here are a few of the things that have stuck with me so far:

- The level of violence in the Old Testament is pretty astounding. I think it is hard to realize the magnitude of God's wrath when reading a few verses in the weekly lectionary.
- The details of the construction of Solomon's temple are fascinating to me. As a church facilities manager, I can't even comprehend the enormity of that building project!
- I enjoyed reading through the Psalms. My favorite is Psalm 150 – it speaks to the musician in me.

Now, will you take the challenge of reading the Bible in a year?
Happy reading!

BY ERIN FLORY

During November our M&Ms kids learned about serving like Jesus. We used Matthew 25 as at the basis of our lessons. The children learned that when they serve the “least of these” they are serving Jesus. Each week during M&Ms the children had the opportunity to serve their neighbors. They served our neighbors who are hungry by preparing Thanksgiving Blessing Bags for WARM. They cared for those who are sick by sending cards to children who are hospitalized at children’s hospitals across the country. They also brought joy to those who may be lonely by sending Thanksgiving cards to our homebound church members. Our hearts were filled as we watched God work through our youngest disciples. -Miss Erin

Music and the Master (M&Ms) Meets Every Thursday

Join us Thursday nights from 5:30-7:00 p.m. for music, fellowship, food and study. During December, the children will be learning about the promise of Jesus and also preparing for the 5:00 p.m. Christmas Eve family service. The typical M&M schedule is:

Everyone gathers for supper in the Fellowship Hall. Families sign up to cook part of the meal on a rotating basis.

Announcements, Events and Updates

Progressive Christmas Concert

The Westerville Habitat Partnership welcomes you to enjoy an evening of art, food, and music at its annual Progressive Christmas Concert on Friday, December 13th. A delicious soup supper served in handcrafted bowls will start at 5:00 at the Otterbein Campus Center and will continue until the progressive concert starts at 7:00. Choirs from Church of the Messiah, Grace Lutheran Church, Church of the Master, Central College Presbyterian Church, and First Presbyterian Church will be performing at churches located in the Uptown area. Guests will also have the opportunity to hear from a Habitat representative during the evening's events to see how this ministry is providing quality affording housing in Central Ohio. All proceeds from this event help continue that mission. For tickets, please see Josh Flory, stop by the table in the Gathering Area on December 1st and 8th, or purchase them online at WestervilleHabitat.org.

History of the Angel Banners

The Angel banners are given in memory of Thomas McVetty Stutz (1983-1994). They were designed by Carol Shackson; Carol and Linda Stutz made them for the Advent Season in 1994. The angels are worshipping the Christ child, who came for every person on Earth. Each represents one of the earth's continents, and together they portray the joy of all the world's peoples. The intent was to portray various nationalities in costumes that represent their traditional dress. The Indian angel wears a sari made of fabric that a friend's mother brought with her from India when she came to the US. The Hispanic angel wears an actual straw hat that we cut in half before attaching. The angel in church choir robes holds a page from an old Church of the Master hymnal.

Mitten Tree

In a cooperative project between Missions and Outreach, this year we are asking you to support a Mitten Tree in the Gathering Space. Your gifts of mittens, gloves, hats, and scarves for all ages and all genders will be collected through the Advent Season and then delivered to those in need through our Laundry Ministry. These items can be found almost anywhere this time of year, on sale much of the time. Or, if you are gifted in this way, home knitted items would be a wonderfully personal addition to the tree as well. The tree is ready to receive your gifts as soon as you are able to bring them through Christmas Eve.
