A Letter from the Pastor

Written by Pastor Jay Anderson

As I write this article I am preparing to do two things: 1) attend the Church of the Resurrection Leadership Institute in Kansas City, KS, and 2) go on vacation. A little about each...

Each year, Adam Hamilton, the Lead Pastor at Church of the Resurrection, hosts a leadership institute where hundreds, if not thousands, of clergy and laity come to learn and train on how to be better, more effective leaders in the church today. This is an ecumenical offering and hosts people from across all denominations and theological perspectives. I have never had the opportunity to attend before, but it has long been on my “bucket list.” (Yes, I can be a bit of a clergy nerd about things like that!) This year, however, because of all that is going on in the United Methodist denomination, the Leadership Institute has been tailored to what is needed in United Methodist congregations at this pivotal time, and is open only to United Methodist clergy and laity to attend. The institute/conference will serve as a gathering place for the larger, centrist-progressive wing of the church who seeks to keep the denomination together as best we can, but as one that is welcoming to all and affirming of God’s call to our LGBTQIA+ brothers and sisters in ministry. I expect that during this conference we will review the legislation that UMNNext, the name of the centrist-progressive coalition, has submitted for consideration at the next General Conference, along with that of the other groups who have submitted legislation pertaining to the future of the church. I would also expect that there will be conversations about how to bring this information back to local congregations to help everyone there to understand what is going on. And of course, that is what I would plan on doing anyway.

And I say all of that in order to affirm what I offered in this space last month - regardless of what happens at General Conference 2020 in May, I am confident that there WILL be an expression of United Methodism that will reflect who we are as a congregation - loving, welcoming, serving, and affirming God's call in ALL of our lives as beloved children of God. I'll share more with you after I return from Kansas City. Immediately following the leadership institute, Lynn and I are leaving for a week of vacation to Sedona, AZ. I shared with you in my very first sermon that I have what I call a "theology of vacation," in that I plan my time away in a very systematic way in order to provide the level of rest, relaxation, and renewal that I know I need in order to best serve you as your pastor. I feel like we've had a very good first three months together since I started on June 30 - you have all been wonderfully supportive of Lynn and I as we have begun our time together. We have had several wonderful opportunities to meet with folks, primarily through supper clubs so far, and look forward to continuing to meet more of you in small groups this fall. And we also are very much enjoying the chance to sing in our wonderful chancel choir. Thanks to Chris and all of the choir for welcoming us in and allowing us to make joyful noise together! I'm sure that when we return for World Communion Sunday on October 6th and our October message series on Communion, we will be nicely rested and ready to head into the next three months with all the energy that Fall and soon, Advent, will require of us. We appreciate your prayers while we are away. In my absence, should any kind of pastoral care issue arise, please reach out to Kristina in the office. Rev. Jim Wagner has kindly agreed to fill in for me in case of any pastoral care emergencies, since we currently are without an Associate Pastor. Our visitation team is also ready to jump in as needed.

Grace & Peace,

Pastor Jay

A note from Miss Erin:

It is so wonderful to be back together on both Sunday mornings and Thursday evening for M&Ms! During M&Ms in September, the children focused on "Praying Like Jesus." We used the Lord's Prayer as a guide and talked about prayers that PRAISE God, ASK God for help and CONFESS the things we've done wrong. In October, our theme is "Knowing Jesus" and we will be learning about Jesus' "I Am" statements. On Sunday mornings our children are digging into their Bibles during the Sunday school hour. They are working their way through Genesis and also systematically learning Bible skills to prepare them to be able to study on their own. It fills my heart to hear each of our kids confidently share their memory verse from this month: "God saw everything He had made. It was supremely good!" Genesis 1:31. During Rainbows and Dewdrops the children are learning to apply their faith to their daily lives within the context of community as they love God and love their neighbors. It is exciting to see God so awesomely at work in the lives of our youngest disciples!

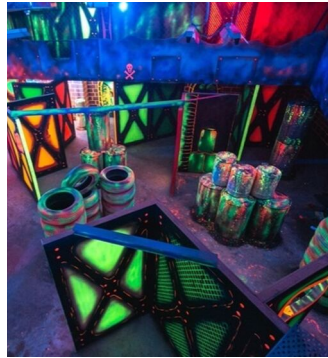

~Erin

U2 Baking and Bake Sale

Please let us know if your 4th-6th grader can join us at Church of the Master for baking and for selling goodies. Any questions, please contact Bev Pancoast or Lucy Kelly. We will then host a Bake Sale in the gathering space between services on Sunday, Oct.13th. Bev and the U2 kids will be selling the goodies to raise money for New Life Community Outreach

Why New Life Community Outreach?

Over the summer, the Survivor Camp went to help New Life and saw all the needs that this ministry has and asked if we could find ways to help them throughout the school year. New Life Community Outreach in downtown Columbus (www.newlifecolumbus.com) includes: NEW4U free men's clothing store, Health and Wellness Center Free Clinic, Sunday Morning Free Breakfast.

We Need New Underwear!

U2 will be collecting new men's underwear for the month of October. This underwear will be given to New Life Community Ministry NEW4U free store. This store is set up like a retail store supplying men's interview-ready clothing and personal care items. Please look for collection bins in the gathering space and in the fellowship hall to place your newly purchased men's underwear. Let's see how many undies we can collect for Undie Sunday!

LOOKING Ahead! Undie Sunday!

Sunday, November 17th, we will be presenting Rev. Susan Kroeker, Interim Director of New Life Community Outreach, with the earnings from our U2 Bake Sale and with a collection of brand new men's underwear for their NEW4U free store!

Where Are They Now?

BY BEV PANCOAST

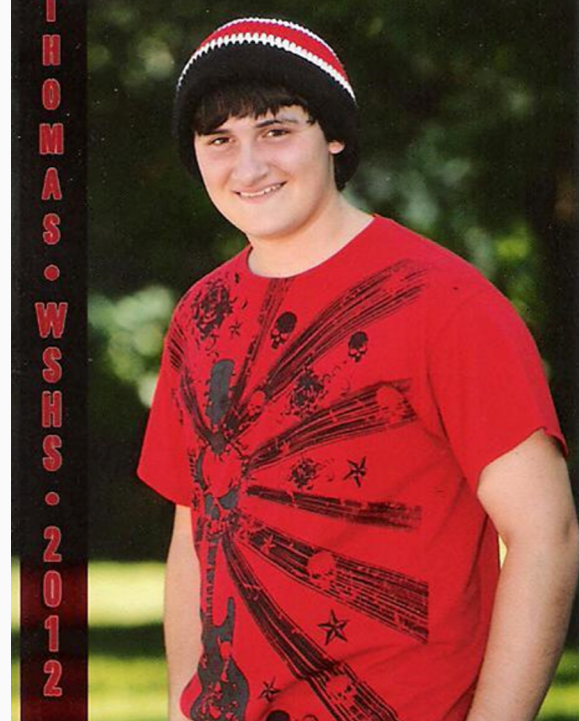

As a church family we watch our children become youth and when they graduate from high school many times we lose track of where they are and what they are doing. Each month we will feature an update on “our kids” who are now out in the world.

Thomas Levine

After graduating from Westerville South High School, Thomas Levine, attended the University of Cincinnati, where he graduated from the Lidner College of Business. Staying in Cincinnati after graduation, Thomas began a job with Cornerstone Broker Insurance Services Agency. Thomas hosts and plans the agencies tech education seminars and also works in commissions, doing audits and accounts receivable work.

Thomas will tell you his favorite memories from growing up at Church of the Master were the youth group lock-ins! Thomas says that it was a lot of fun being around everyone and getting to know the other youth at the church. Although Thomas didn't have the opportunity to participate in summer mission trips, it were events like the lock-ins that made him feel like part of the group. Our usual 8:30 a.m. worship service attendees didn't have to look too far to find Thomas wearing his black, red, and white beanie and a big smile on his face.

A skill that Thomas has learned and loves is cooking! He says that he's “made a lot of dishes recently and I'm getting back into baking.” A favorite dish of his to cook is curry and now Thomas has recently started experimenting with a Sous Vide Machine.

October 6 6:00-7:30 p.m.

The Youth Group will be making “Knots of Love” blankets that will ultimately go with the REACH 2020 team to Pennsylvania and will be given to the neighbors we serve. (We will work on this project throughout the school year).

October 13 6:00-7:30 p.m.

Our time together will be focused on Grace and how God’s grace is freely given to all who believe.

October 20 6:00–7:30 p.m.

Tough Topic: Gun Control

As mass shootings in our country continue to rise, how do Christians respond to this crisis...we hear time and time again “we’re praying for the people of...” God certainly wants us to pray for the victims, but we will discuss how we can put our faith into action no matter where individuals stand on the topic.

October 27 6:00–8:00 p.m.

“Pumpkin Palooza”

All youth are invited to join us as we have an evening of pumpkin fun. Bring a pumpkin to carve (gutting a head of time will save a lot of time), and get ready for some pumpkin fun... there will be games, pumpkin food, and a pumpkin carving contest. (There will be a snack sign up coming out closer to the end of October for people to sign up).

2019-2020 Confirmation Class

Saturday, October 26 9:00-3:00 p.m.

All 7th and 8th grade youth are invited to participate in the 2019-2020 Confirmation Class. More details will be coming to families in the beginning of October. For more information, contact Bev Pancoast or Pastor Jay.

The Reach Mission Trip will be the week of June 21-27, 2020!

We will be going to the Gettysburg, PA area.

Spaghetti Dinner for Otterbein Students, Faculty, and Staff

October 22 5:00-7:30 p.m.

Volunteers of all ages are invited to join in a radical hospitality tradition! The Church of the Master Spaghetti Dinner is one of the experiences that students have on their “must do” list while they are at Otterbein. We need help to prepare, serve, and clean up, AND we need DESSERTS!

To volunteer you can sign up on a connection card on October 13 or 20, or follow the the Sign Up Genius link below:

Campus Ministry

BY LUCY KELLY

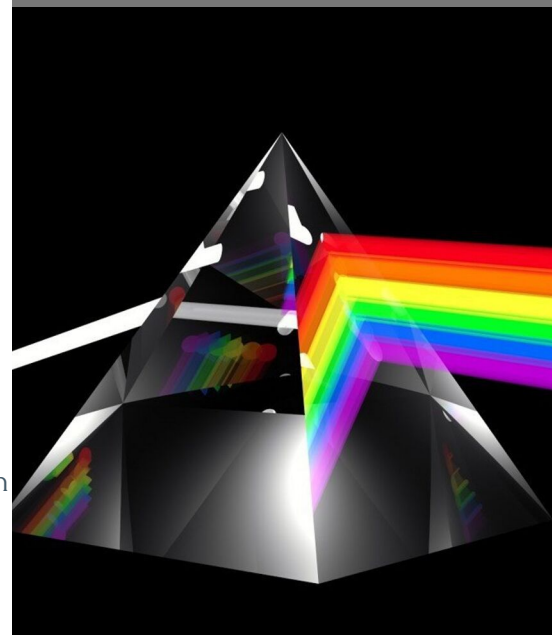

We started the school year off with Otterbein's Fall Plunge in August. Church of the Master hosted 25 students who helped bake over 1,000 chocolate chip cookies for Kairos Prison Ministry and cut out 60 fabric dogs for "Master's Mutts." This event was led by Bev Pancoast, Carol Shackson, and Lucy Kelly. Our Monday Morning Coffee is steadily growing in the number of students we serve and we are grateful for all our volunteers that wake up early to help. The students have really enjoyed the addition of Schneider's donuts, thanks to Larry and Marilyn Gabel, and fresh apples from Lynn Anderson. On Saturday, September 21st, we were excited to serve hot beverages to students, alumni, and families for Otterbein's Homecoming parade.

Over the summer, our college students decided to make some big changes to Crossroads Campus Ministry. They chose to change the name to Prisms Campus Ministry and wanted to try gathering in a new space on a new day and time. The name "Prisms" was thought of by one of our students. Rev. Dr. Judy Guion-Utler, Otterbein's Chaplain, found a quote that summed up what a prism does when it receives and reflects light. "We draw people to Christ not by loudly discrediting what they believe, by telling them how they are wrong and how right we are, but by showing them a light that is so lovely that they want with all their hearts to know the source of it." – Madeleine L'Engle

We now gather in the Philomathean room inside Towers (on campus). Our student president is Wesley Utsler, who helps plan and lead worship. Wesley creatively wrote a creed for our group:

We believe in one God, the creator almighty, the maker of the heavens and the earth, of all people, and all living things. We believe in the profound teachings of Jesus Christ, to love God and to love one another. We believe in God's grace and gift of eternal life through the death and resurrection of Jesus, the son of God. We believe in the Holy Spirit, who with the creator and the son is adored and glorified and works within each living thing, unites all races, lives in all nations and speaks all languages. We believe in one universal Church, where we carry on the teaching that we are one people, distinct and alike at the same time, male or female, gay or straight, cis or trans, abled or disabled, no matter who we are, where we were born, or what race we are. We believe in the saying "You Be You." We are all interconnected, loved by God, and held in God's grace forever. Amen.

"We draw people to Christ not by loudly discrediting what they believe, by telling them how they are wrong and how right we are, but by showing them a light that is so lovely that they want with all their hearts to know the source of it." – Madeleine L'Engle

We have had new and seasoned students join us this fall and it is exciting to witness this growth. Our gatherings in September focused on parables in the Bible through different worship experiences (Bible study, prayer service, worship). In October, we will be discussing women in the Bible. We began integrating therapy dogs with our monthly meetings last year thanks to Linda Stutz, which was well received by the students. We will continue to invite Harriet and Zach Holloway and their dogs, Bear and Strider, to join us for puppies and prayers. The students also expressed an interest in service projects that our group could do together in the community. Our project for September was helping partner with Promise House to work in their community garden. God is doing great things in and among these students. They truly appreciate the support and kindness that Church of the Master provides for them and the community. Thank you for holding this ministry and these students in your prayers and hearts. We truly are grateful for this partnership and these opportunities to serve.

Looking ahead at October, we are busy preparing for the Spaghetti Dinner on Tuesday, October 22nd. We need all the volunteers we can get! Please contact Lucy Kelly (lucy@chmaster.org) or Bev Pancoast (bev@chmaster.org) if you are able to help in any way (preparing, serving, cleanup, etc.).

Congregational Care

Our prayers of condolences are with the Freshly and Rodwell families at the recent passing of Marcia Searfos Ogle who passed away on September 4, 2019.

Marcia was a beloved saint of our Church of the Master community and all those that knew her loved her. As quoted from her obituary, "She loved fiercely, lived faithfully, and followed Jesus fearlessly."

A Note from Jenny Freshly:

Dear Friends of the Master, Thank you for the many outpourings of love and care that you have shared with the Freshly and Rodwell families at my mother's passing. Cards of condolences given, memories shared, stories retold, food prepared, flowers gifted, and hugs bestowed have brightened the darkness of these last few weeks. Thank you, family, for showing us God's love in real and tangible ways! Love, Jenny Freshly

Our prayers are also with John Cole at the passing of his mother, Susie M. Cole on Wednesday, September 25, 2019.

Our prayers are also with Ron and Suzi Jones at the passing of Ron's brother, Hughey Jones on Saturday, September 28, 2019.

Announcements, Events and Updates

Help needed for the Master's Mutts!

Every other month, Church of the Master volunteers provide a dinner for the current residents of the YWCA Family Shelter for homeless families in Franklin County. About four years ago, Carol Shackson started a ministry to the children of the shelter and organized a group of volunteers to provide a stuffed dog to each child on the evenings that Church of the Master provides the meal.

On Thursday, October 3rd, volunteers who help make the dogs will meet for a work session in the Fellowship Hall at 1:00 p.m. We welcome anyone who would like to help. We particularly need people who know how to sew on a sewing machine or do hand sewing and embroidery to sew around the eyes and nose. We need to make over 100 dogs to be distributed at the next dinner on November 19th.

For more information, please call Ann Peat, 614-890-3802 or 614-354-3217 or email: annpeat@columbus.rr.com.
